Dear QSL Participant:

Reference our previous letter of February 20, 2001, this is a reminder that the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia (DSCP) is presently utilizing Atlas Testing Labs (ATL) Incorporated, Audit Division, as its agent in the conduct of Qualified Supplier's List (QSL) audits. This process was implemented in April of last year and will continue indefinitely due to internal resource shortages. There may be specific instances where DSCP personnel perform an audit directly. Additionally, the Defense Contract Management Agency (DCMA) will continue to conduct most pre-qualification site-surveys.

If there are any questions on this issue, you can call me directly at 215-737-7020.
