

DENT

Table IV, Defect No. 110 - Lower limit of a major defect. End seam pulled out of position to such an extent that the malposition is readily noticeable at first glance. There is some suspicion that the end seam had been placed under tension sufficient to jeopardize the hermetic seal (major defect). Moderately deep, sharp, angular indentation with moderately acute crimping of the body wall (minor defect).